

Stephex Group, a strongly growing Belgian company, not only a global market leader in the trade of sport horses and European market leader in the construction of luxury vehicles for transporting horses, but also active in the financial, event, and real estate sector recruits.

ALLROUND POLYVALENT TECHNICIAN

Responsibilities

You are responsible for the day-to-day repair and maintenance work in Stephex's domains which includes the following tasks:

- Managing and expanding electrical installations (e.g. installing and replacing lighting)
- Locating and repairing faults,
- Maintenance of various installations (cleaning and replacing filters, heat pumps, etc.)

Profile

You have acquired the necessary technical baggage over the years or you can prove that you are technically trained in electrical installations.

You are problem-solving, can work independently, and know how to take responsibility.

Knowledge of home automation and camera surveillance is a plus.

You are in possession of a driving license B.

You're driven, motivated, and enthusiastic. Knowledge of the French language is a plus.

Offer

Stephex Group offers you a challenging position with responsibility.

At the same time, you can contribute to the further growth of the company. The atmosphere is young and direct, the enthusiasm speaks for itself.

Every working day looks different and this at a unique location.

We offer a salary in the function of your experience. Preferably full-time but part-time is negotiable.

Do you find your passion in this?

Then apply online now via the following form or send an email to info@stephex.com