

Stephex Group is a family-owned company located in Meise, Belgium.

They are the market leaders in the construction of exclusive horse trucks, motorhomes and 2-horses trucks. The production sites are based in Székesfehérvár, Hungary.

MANUFACTURING ENGINEER / TECHNICIAN

Our new colleague should be:

a hands-on, practical person who is able to find the improvement possibilities, initiates and implements changes on the shopfloor to provide better quality and reduce costs.

Profile

- Degree: manufacturing technologist, manufacturing engineer, process engineer, mechanical engineer
- Work experience: at least 3 years of recent practical experience as a technician/process/manufacturing engineer in the field of milling, turning, grinding, sheet metal forming and welding in both small serial and custom product manufacturing
- Language skills: Hungarian and English on communication level

Responsibilities

- Planning and executing process development activities, followed by analysis of results and release of new processes for production
- Proposing and executing solutions to improve quality, performance, uptime and volume
- Performing troubleshooting
- Maintaining strong collaboration with manufacturing, engineering, logistics and suppliers
- Preparing and giving training for the colleagues on the shopfloor
- Coordinating prototype building, documenting the activities, and developing the serial manufacturing technology for the new solution
- Implementing product modifications into the manufacturing

Offer

- Diverse work
- Continuous professional development
- Youthful work atmosphere and long-term career opportunities
- Ongoing challenges thanks to unique products
- Pleasant working environment
- Long-term, stable job position

Are you excited about this opportunity?

Then apply online now by filling out the following form or send an e-mail to: allas@stephex.com